~Mia has graduated from EMU (officially) and is moving to VA January 3, 2020. To celebrate this accomplishment and wish her well, we are inviting you to join us for sandwiches after church this Sunday, December 29. If you would like to bring a side dish to share with the meal, you are welcome to do so. Thanks for all your support of her through her college experience and internship at WHMC. ~Dave and Shelby Swartley

~Dear Witmer Heights Mennonite Church,

We want to say thank you for the very generous monetary gift at Christmas, and the beautiful flowers from Jenelle Kauffman. The flowers on our table remind us daily of your love and support. We have been blessed in so many ways, and your gift is so meaningful. With much appreciation!
Randy and Emily Keener

~Advent Giving for CVCCS – Your Advent Giving items are due at the church this Sunday, December 29. If you haven’t been doing the “advent giving box” you may still bring items for the box that is by the mailboxes every Sunday. In addition to food items, paper supplies, bars of soap, dish detergent, etc. are also welcome. They will be taken to CVCCS later this week.

~Care Need: Beginning in 2020, a volunteer(s) is needed to transport Nathan Buckwalter to and from church each Sunday. Nathan generally attends worship, but not Sunday school, and so the need is for someone to slip out between SS and church to get him and then take him home after services. Nathan lives near Costco. Ideally there would be 2-3 volunteers to share this load, with each having designated Sundays in the month. Please see Jan Mast, Care Team Leader, if you are interested.

~The “My Coins Count” campaign will begin next Sunday, January 5. Bring your coins to help with the work of MCC – (Mennonite Central Committee).
