A PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

O God, Compassionate One...
I pray for a heart that is gentle with myself when I fail to be compassionate—because I will fail. I will stumble.
Help me to extend the same compassion toward myself
that I want to offer others.
I pray that my desire and my attempts to live compassionately will encourage others
To be compassionate – one by one by one—until our world is filled with compassionate people, filled with people who have your compassionate heart pulsing through us. Amen
by June Mears Driedger
